

Train the Trainer Course for Transporting Kids Safely in Ambulances

The Nebraska EMS Program conducted a Train-the-Trainer Course for Transporting Kids Safely in Ambulances on November 3, 2012 in Wood River, NE.

Katrina Altenhofen was the instructor for this course. In addition to being honored as the CPS Instructor of the Year, Katrina is the Program Manager of the Iowa Department of Public Health and was one of Iowa's first CPS technicians and instructors. She began her career as a paramedic and joined the Iowa Department of Public Health in 1995, where she was certified as a CPS technician and instructor. She started Iowa's Child Passenger Safety Seat program in October 1998. In addition to her work in Iowa, Katrina was a member of the panel that created the NHTSA Transporting Children Safely in Ground Ambulances guidelines and is currently assisting New York's EMSC program to develop an online EMS CPS training.
